The Howler

Newspaper Patron Donation Form

Dear Parent of a Wakefield High School Student,

The Howler is Wakefield High School's award-winning newspaper. This year we are offering a unique opportunity and seeking support from parents of Wakefield High School students. For a minimum donation of $25, every copy of The Howler that is published this year will be delivered to your address.

The Howler is typically published eight times a school year and is fully supported through advertisements and donations alone. If you agree to support The Howler with a donation, not only will The Howler arrive at your home; your name will also be listed in the patron section of our publication. Reading The Howler is a great way to stay informed about community events, school events, high school sports, student opinions, and many other entertaining writings. Please consider donating to The Howler and support the student-led voice of Wakefield High School.
